

LONE PINE PAIUTE-SHOSHONE RESERVATION
2023 Special (Chairperson) Tribal Election (60 day) Timeline

February 5, 2023	Reinstate 2022- Election Board
March 5, 2023	Election Timeline- Approval of 2023 Special Tribal Election Timeline
March 5, 2023	Election Process - Start of 60 Days prior to Special Tribal Election.
April 2, 2023	REGULAR GENERAL COUNCIL MEETING – Candidates for special election shall be nominated. Candidates shall follow-up in writing to the election board chairperson announcing their intentions. Eligible voters who may also want to run must announce their intentions in writing at this time to be given to Interim Tribal Chairperson who in return hands to Election Chairperson. April 2, 2023 last day for nominated candidates to file “letter of intent”.
April 7, 2023	Absentee Voting Ballots Made Available – (30 days prior to Tribal Election). Will be sent “Upon Request” to qualified voters.
April 7, 2023	Post list of “Eligible Voter’s List” and Election notices advertised and posted. (30 days prior to Tribal Election)
April 26, 2023	Deadline to Request Absentee Voting Ballot. (10 days prior to Election)
May 5, 2023	Deadline at 4:30 p.m. For Absentee Voting Ballots. Absentee voting ballots must be received “certified return receipt.”
May 6, 2023 (Saturday)	ELECTION DAY 7 A.M to 7 P.M. The General Council will assemble in an open meeting the night of the election at 7:00 p.m. after the closing of the polls. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• SPECIAL GENERAL COUNCIL MEETING – (See Section VI 7 VII; Part B) General Council may hear contests, protest, or grievances regarding election at the time of the Official count of the election results are certified. If no grievances or appeals are made the decision of General Council shall be final.
May 11, 2023	Deadline for Any Appeals. (Protesting Election)
May 12, 2023	Final Certification of Election Documents.